

Erste Liga Disciplinary Committee

no.2023-24/027 decree

The Disciplinary Committee of the Erste Liga for the request of the Erste Liga Disciplinary Committee's president, investigated the Erste Liga game EL 112 (Sport Club Csíkszereda - Corona Brasov) case where in the 9th minutes Blackwater Judd (Corona Brasov) collided with his opponent. The referees did not impose a penalty.

The Committee made the following conclusions:

Blackwater Judd pushed his opponent from behind with his stick, who was no longer in possession of the puck. The player of the Sport Club Csíkszereda was hit at a dangerous distance from the board, in a position where he couldn't defend himself. The player fell on the ice and hit the board with great force.

The referees should have detected the incident and sanctioned it based on the IIHF Rule number 59.

IIHF RULE 59 CROSS-CHECKING

The act of using the shaft of the stick between the two hands to forcefully check an opponent.

IIHF RULE 28 SUPPLEMENTARY DISCIPLINE

The Proper Authorities may, at their discretion, investigate any incident that occurs in connection with any game played under the jurisdiction of the IIHF, including any championship, pre-championship, practice or exhibition games and league games.

The Proper Authorities may assess additional Disciplinary Measures for any offense committed during the course of a game or any aftermath thereof by a Player, Coach, or team personnel or Team executive, whether or not such offense has been penalized by the Referee(s).

The Disciplinary Committee prohibits Blackwater Judd, player of the Corona Brasov, for 1 Erste Liga game due to dangerous movement.

The player will spend down his sentence at the next Erste Liga game.

According the Erste Liga Competition Rules 72/B. § (1) the prohibition imposed an automatic fine on the Corona Brasov. The organization must pay a fine of EUR 150 according the 72/B. § (2).
